EGA Diversity Statement

EGA is committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment for stitchers of any experience level, age, race, ethnicity, nationality, ability, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, or other background to develop their skills and express their creativity through the needle arts. EGA affirms the commitment to inclusion, diversity, equity, and accessibility (IDEA).

Student Code of Conduct

EGA fosters values of honor, mutual respect, cultural sensitivity, integrity, and responsible conduct. Students are expected to behave consistent with these principles, whether attending in- person or virtual classes, displaying principles of common courtesy towards their teacher and fellow classmates.

1. Students will use their best efforts to listen during instruction and will not be disruptive.
2. Students will not unduly monopolize the teacher's time and attention to the detriment of their fellow classmates.
3. Students will limit their contact with the teacher to classroom or online methods deemed acceptable by the teacher.
4. At the discretion of EGA, students who violate the code of conduct may be asked to leave the class and/or event.

EGA Mission Statement

“Our Mission is to inspire passion for the needle arts through education and the celebration of its heritage.”
